The by-election was triggered following the death of County Hall leader Cliff Jordan earlier this month. Conservative Mr Jordan had held the seat since 2001.

The candidates are: Harry Clarke (Labour), Edward Connolly (Conservatives) and Andrew Thorpe (Liberal Democrats).

The poll will take place between 7am and 10pm on Thursday, July 12.

The division includes Bradenham, Cranworth, Garvestone, Great Ellingham, Hardingham, Little Ellingham, Rocklands, Saham Toney, Scoulton, Shipdham, Whinburgh, Westfield and Yaxham.

County Hall is under the control of the Conservatives. They have 53 seats, Labour have 16, the Liberal Democrats 11. There are two independents and one independent (non-aligned).
