Walking provides health and economic benefits and there are many places to walk in Dereham, some are public streets, some are parks and open spaces. Dereham has 35 public rights of way - paths and tracks which everyone can use by right. We have published fourteen walk-guides which cover most of the countryside paths.

Gressenhall Walk

Booking now open

The walk starts at 10:00 from Gressenhall Workhouse Museum (NR20 4DR) and is a little under 6 miles, taking about 2½ hours, including a short break at the church for those bringing their own refreshments. There is ample car parking at the Workhouse which will be open for those who want to visit afterwards (admission charges apply).

Tickets cost £6, which includes tea or coffee plus cake on return. (The café also serves lunches.)

Booking is essential: please book as soon as possible, preferably by 8 October, will do our best to accommodate anyone booking after this date, so please contact us even after that date. Contact Ken Hawkins dtc.fpwarden@talktalk.net (07505 426750) or any committee member.

More information in the current events section or download our flyer (opens in new tab).

Hoe Rough Walk

The walk took us across some of the less used parts of The Neatherd, and on to Northall Green. Continuing north, to Hoe, descending through Hoe Common and across Hoe Rough on the fringes of Beetley. Returning along Mill Lane (part of Wensum Way) and then down Quebec Road back to the town centre.
